

SPRING 2026 ACCESSIBLE PERFORMANCES

CAPTIONING

SENSORY FRIENDLY

ASL INTERPRATION

AUDIO DESCRIPTION

We want everyone to be able to enjoy their visit at our ADA-compliant Ware Center for the Arts. The Ware Center strives to make our performances accessible to all patrons. Provided in this flyer is a schedule of services offered at upcoming performances for all to enjoy.

All performances are wheelchair accessible

Box Office
(717) 871-7600
Relay calls welcome

Box Office Hours
Monday - Friday
9 AM - 4 PM

Buy Tickets Online
www.artsmu.com

Many of these performances are FREE to everyone, but for those shows that are not, there are a limited number of free tickets, based on expressed financial need, available for all performances to patrons who are Deaf or living with disabilities. For free tickets, please contact Barry Kornhauser at Barry.Kornhauser@millersville.edu.

Sangjaru

Friday, February 6 • 7 PM • Steinman Hall

A captivating Korean folk fusion band that merges the energy of traditional Korean music with the infectious rhythms of gypsy swing, funk, rock, and improvisation. The name "Sangjaru" derives from two Korean words, "sangja" (box) and "jaru" (sack). While a box has a fixed shape, a sack adapts to the contents it carries. The band draws inspiration from this concept, aiming to infuse new creativity into the rich traditions of Korean music. FREE

AD Audio description available • 6:10 PM Touch tour

The Jane Austen Playlist: Love and Music of Regency England

Friday, February 13 • 7:30 PM • Steinman Hall

A historical music project featuring narrated scenes from Jane Austen's novels, paired with the music contained in the Austen Family Music Books. From scenes of humor and charm to moments of reflection and melancholy, Austen's words are brought to life like never before through the music that she herself played and sang. $22/$15

Sensory-friendly accommodations available

Ware Center for the Arts

ARTSMU.COM

SPRING 2026 ACCESSIBLE PERFORMANCES (CONTINUED)

Silent War: Asian American Reckonings with Mental Health

Wednesday, February 18 • 7 PM • Steinman Hall

Asian Americans are among the least likely to seek help for mental illness. The stigma surrounding the topic, in conjunction with discrimination and racial profiling, makes mental health an intersectional—and pressing—issue, taking an unspoken toll on this community. FREE

6:15 PM • Pre-show community panel

Post-show Q&A • Director Dr. Changfu Chang

ASL interpretation & captioning available

Unbound: Poetry, Presence and the Art of Becoming

Friday, March 6 • 6:30 PM • Owen Grand Salon

Join the Urban Well in exploring the intersection of disability, spirituality, and the arts. Building on last year's "Encountering Disability" events at MU, this program invites the community into an immersive space of listening and wonder. With live poetry, visual art, and guided contemplative practice, Unbound honors the legacy of poet & disability rights activist Vassar Miller and other artists whose voices invite us into deeper belonging. FREE

Fully accessible show

Natalie MacMaster & Donnell Leahy and the Celtic All Stars

Saturday, March 7 • 7:30 PM • Steinman Hall

Celebrate St. Patrick's Day with Celtic legend Natalie MacMaster, Fiddle virtuoso Donnell Leahy, and the world's top Celtic musicians. Featuring true all-stars of the Celtic world from Ireland, England, Scotland and beyond, explore the connections between Celtic styles across countries, from the music's ancient roots to its modern trends. Join Natalie, Donnell, their daughter Mary Frances, and their special guests for an unforgettable night! $35/$27

AD Audio description available • Touch tour

SPRING 2026 ACCESSIBLE PERFORMANCES (CONTINUED)

Louder than Guns

Wednesday, March 18 • 7 PM • Steinman Hall

Old Crow Medicine Show's Ketch Secor and NPR's David Greene journey through rural, urban, and suburban America, having a conversation that humanizes all sides of this country's polarized gun debate. Through the convening power of music and civil discourse, Secor and Greene help those they meet to find unexpected common ground. FREE

6:15 PM • Pre-show community panel

Post-show Q&A • David Greene

ASL interpretation & captioning available

Jazz at Lincoln Center Presents Great American Crooners

Saturday, March 21 • 7:30 PM • Steinman Hall

Soak in the velvety melodies and smoky rhythms of quintessential crooners such as Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett, and Bobby Darin when the golden age of jazz returns with Great American Crooners! A dazzling night of swoon-worthy hits and sentimental serenades awaits when Benny Benack III, Robbie Lee, and Shenel Johns perform favorites like "I've Got You Under My Skin," "Misty," "I Only Have Eyes for You," "Moon River" and many, many more. $27/$19

Audio description and sensory friendly accommodations available

The Making of Life On Our Planet

Thursday, April 16 • 7:30 PM • Steinman Hall

Four billion years. Millions of species. Five mass extinction events (and counting). It's the story of Life on Our Planet. From the Emmy® Award-winning team behind Netflix's Our Planet series comes an immersive new live show where the explorers, filmmakers, scientists, or adventurers behind the scenes takes the stage to share stories about creating some of the most eye-catching footage of our planet. $10/$8

6:30 pm • Salon • Discussion panel with "green" experts from the Lancaster Conservancy

ASL interpretation & captioning available

SPRING 2026 ACCESSIBLE PERFORMANCES (CONTINUED)

Doodle POP

Saturday, April 25 • 1 PM • Steinman Hall

A mischievous duo starts to doodle... and ends up creating a whole imaginative world! Follow their vivid drawings into a beautiful watery world where anything can happen. With live musicians, stunning interactive animation, and live whiteboard drawings, this touching and playful non-verbal show from South Korea delivers an abundance of theatrical imagination. $15/$10

12 pm • Lobby • Free kids' activities!

Non-verbal show • ASL interpretation & sensory-friendly accommodations available